Mr. Paul Plunkett

Dear Mr. Plunkett,

Nov. 5, 1987.

Please excuse this unusual way that I had to contact you, but I had to bring to your attention an important matter. It's about a case that was in your Court from March of 1983 until January of 1986. It was Case # [REDACTED] I was the Plaintiff in that case and I was suing the U.S. Post Office and the Natl. Assoc. of Letter Carriers. The lawsuit was filed on August 11, 1981, by an attorney that I had hired, named [REDACTED]. The case was in the Court of Judge J. Flaum. As a result of filing this lawsuit, on November 9, 1981, I was removed from my job at the Post Office. I was not fired or laid-off of the job. [REDACTED] told me that if they tried to remove me from the job he would file an injunction and stop them. He never did this. [REDACTED] remained on the case for a year. During this time, he never filed any facts in this case. At the end of 1982, I got into an argument with [REDACTED] for not doing anything with this case and I

b6
b7C

b6
b7C

told him that I was going to turn him into the Attorney Registration and Disciplinary Commission for not working on the case. [redacted] called me a week later and told me that there was nothing more that he could do. [redacted] then had the case transferred to your Court, and on January 21, 1983, you gave him permission to withdraw as my attorney. I then hired another attorney to take the case from [redacted] [redacted]. The next attorney I had was [redacted] [redacted] attended a status hearing along with the other attorneys in March of 1983. After, he told me that only two parts of the case were still good, the rest of the case was time-barred by a six month time limit of the Natl. Labor Relations Act based on a case called "Del Costello vs. Intl. Teamsters." I asked [redacted] about the rest of the case that was time-barred. He told me that he could always bring it back into the case later on. He never did this. The reason being was that the whole case was time-barred. When these attorneys attended

b6
b7C

b6
b7C

(3)

b6
b7C

the status hearing in March of 1983, they lied to me, they lied to the Courts, and they lied to you, the Judge on this Case. Depositions started in October of 1983. The Post Office's attorney requested Copies of my income tax returns. I got into a disagreement with [redacted] about this. He told me that they had a right to ask for these income tax Copies. He said that it was part of the Case. The rest of 1983 & part of 1984, were spent with depositions from different witnesses that were involved in this Case. Then, on January 29, 1986, you made a final decision on this Case. Your decision on the two parts of this Case was the same as it was back in March of 1983, that it was time-barred by the six Month time limit of the Natl. Labor Relations act; "Del Costello vs. Intl. Transfers. I knew then that something was wrong. The same Judge cannot make the same decision on the same Case twice. [redacted] did not send me a Copy of this decision until two weeks after it was made. This left me only

b6

(4)

b6
b7C

two weeks to find another attorney to file an appeal because [redacted] had quit being my attorney. I was not able to find an attorney within that time. I then called Federal Court and talked with your Clerk. I asked her if I could come in and talk to you about this, but she refused to let me do this. I have been trying since February of 1986 to find an attorney to reopen this case, but no one that I talked to would help me. I even talked to attorneys in order to sue [redacted] for Malpractice but they would not do this either. They admit that it was the 1st attorney [redacted] that had lost the lawsuit, but what happened from 1983 till 1986 was another matter. The Post Office knew that I was determined to get my job back or a settlement in money or both. The only way they could prevent me from doing this was to ask for copies of my income tax returns and find out how much money I had. When my money was all gone, then the case came to an end. I also have a letter from [redacted] that

b6
b7C

b6
b7C

(5)

says that he was taking the money from me and giving it to the opposing Counsel. Some attorneys I have talked to believe that you, the judge, was paid off. I do not believe this. I do, however, believe that something went on between the attorneys that were involved in this case and the Clerks that were assigned to you at that time. I believe this matter should be investigated.

I paid [redacted] $3,500 and I paid [redacted] $14,648.30. That makes over $18,000 that I was defrauded out of over a lawsuit that was invalid, and a job that I was never paid from. I even asked the F.B.I. to investigate this but they refused. Not once but twice. I don't know why these two attorneys did this to me, but I believe they both were paid-off very well. I am thinking about taking this to the newspaper so as they can print a story about it and let everyone know that there is now corruption in Federal Court. I will enclose my name & address & telephone number and the times that I can be reached. I pray that you contact me as soon as possible otherwise everybody will be reading about this in the newspaper.

Thank you.

in order to make sure that this case did not go to trial I have been unable to find an attorney since January of 1986 to try and get this case reopened. All attorneys that I have talked to since then have told me that the case should be under investigation because it involves some wrongdoing in Federal Court here in Chicago. I explained all of this to Mr. Yates in a telephone conversation that I had with him about 9 months ago. I told him that if he ever got back to Washington he would have to make a look into the matter. He never did. Since I was never really fired from my job with the Post Office, I requested that they return to me my job and all back-pay that I have lost over a 5 1/2 year span plus all other money I have lost involved in this matter. I have not heard from Mr. Yates since and when I call his office to inquire about this problem, his staff is very abusive to me. Friends of mine have told me that I should rob the people in Mr. Yates's office until I get back.

I hope that possibly this letter may find its way into the hands of Federal Investigators that can look into this matter and find out why my rights to a fair trial and also my rights to work for the Post office are being denied me. Any help you can give me will be greatly appreciated.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION
WASHINGTON, D.C.

Honorable Mr. Wright, JUN 11 1987
June 8, 1987.

I am writing to you in the hope that perhaps you can help me with a problem that I have. I live in a part of Illinois that is under a fellow Congressman of yours, Mr. Sydney Yates. I wrote to Mr. Yates about 9 months ago about a problem I had with my employer, the U.S. Post Office. I explained to Mr. Yates that I had been removed from my job in Nov. 1981 in retaliation for filing a lawsuit against the U.S. Post Office because I was being harassed by a "Gay" Supervisor, and also against the union, the National Association of Letter Carriers. I also told her that I never had filed Complaints with the P.E.O., but the Post Office had failed to turn these Complaints over to the office of the E.E.O.C, for a hearing. The lawsuit was filed in August of 1981, and it was under a six month time limit. The Attorney who filed the lawsuit was dishonest. He did nothing for me for the year he was on the case.

(OVER)

I found a new Attorney in March of 1983 to take the Case over, however he also was dishonest. All the Attorneys that were involved in this Case, there were 2 from the Post Office, 1 from the N.A.A.C.P., and also 2 from the U.S. Attorneys office had gone into Court and lied to the judge making him think that the Case was still Active. Due to these dishonest Attorneys, I was never in Court at all to defend myself, from August of 1981 to January of 1986. This also brings out some questions about the Clerks that were assigned to a judge Paul Plunkett during this time. The 2 Attorneys that I had to defend me were paid over $18,000 by me under the terms that I was to get all this money back plus my job and a settlement in money. Some of this money I had to borrow from my family. The last Attorney that I had on this Case had sent me letters stating that he was taking this money from me and giving it to the Post Office's Attorneys. I also believe that some of this money was used to pay-off Judge Plunkett's Clerks,

On November 12, 1987, [redacted]

[redacted] telephone [redacted]

was contacted by the undersigned agent. The undersigned agent explained that she was contacting [redacted] regarding a letter sent to the home of U.S. District Court Judge PAUL PLUNKETT. [redacted] advised that he hired a detective named [redacted] (phonetic) from the [redacted] to obtain the home address of [redacted] PLUNKETT. [redacted] advised that [redacted] information of Judge PLUNKETT, was able to obtain his home address. [redacted] advised that he purposely never obtained the address from the detective agency and had them address the envelope to Judge PLUNKETT.

b6
b7C

[redacted] advised that he wrote the letter to Judge PLUNKETT only because he felt that Judge PLUNKETT should be aware of how he was mistreated by his attorney regarding his case number [redacted] was the plaintiff in that case and filed suit against the United States Post Office and the National Association of Letter Carriers. The law suit was filed on August 11, 1981 by [redacted] attorney [redacted]. The case was originally before U.S. District Court Judge [redacted] paid [redacted] approximately $3,500.00 for his representation which lasted approximately one year. In March of 1983 the case was transferred to Judge PLUNKETT and [redacted] hired attorney [redacted] to represent him. It was later that [redacted] found out that his case had been time-barred, inasmuch as attorney [redacted] violated the six month time limit to file motions in the case. According to [redacted] told him he still had a time-bar problem on parts of the case but he could get the case reinstated before Judge PLUNKETT.

b7C

From 1983 through 1986, [redacted] told [redacted] that he was filing motions and attending hearings before Judge PLUNKETT. Upon [redacted] advice, [redacted] never attended any hearings. From the beginning [redacted] promised [redacted] that results of the case before PLUNKETT would include [redacted] getting his job back with the U.S. Postal for United States Congressman SIDNEY R. YATES, 2100 Ridge Avenue, Evanston, Illinois, business phone 328-2610 or home phone [redacted] was contacted and furnished the following information.

b6
b7C

[redacted] stated that he has received several prior letters from [redacted] and has spoken telephonically to [redacted] regarding these letters on several occasions.

[redacted] advised that these letters were the result of a grievance [redacted] had with the United States Post Office during 1981 and the lack of satisfaction regarding his settlement. He stated that the initial letter he received was during August, 1986. He indicated that this letter was forwarded to the United States Postal Service in Washington, D.C., who replied to [redacted] and Congressman YATES in September and October, 1986.

b7C

[redacted] advised that apparently [redacted] did not feel the United States Post Office's reply was satisfactory in regard to him being removed from his job, nor the settlement determined.

b6
b7C

[redacted] advised that on June 8, 1987, [redacted] sent a letter to the Honorable JAMES WRIGHT, Speaker of the House, House of Representatives, Washington, D.C., which letter was received by Mr. WRIGHT's Office and referred to Mr. YATES' staff and forwarded to him.

In this letter, [redacted] threatened to [redacted] "rob or take hostage" the people in Mr. YATES' Office.

[redacted] stated that prior to this letter, he had spoken to [redacted] and advised him there was not a lot Mr. YATES could do for him since the matter was before the judiciary.

The matter was now clearly between he, [REDACTED] and his attorney and that no member of congress could dictate to the judiciary as it was a separate entity.

b6
b7C

[REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] was also upset with his attorneys and felt they were dishonest, and were not doing enough for him. He indicated that [REDACTED] did call him on October 2, 1986 and advised him his attorney was being brought before a disciplinary board.

[REDACTED] stated that on February 20, 1987, [REDACTED] called him and asked what was going on with his case. It was at that time [REDACTED] told him "Mr. YATES should have changed the courts decision." [REDACTED] stated [REDACTED] was very upset during this call.

b7C

[REDACTED] stated that although he never met [REDACTED] he appeared to be very high strung. During some conversations he was rational and understanding and in others he was agitated and very upset.

[REDACTED] stated that Mr. YATES, according to his records, also spoke to [REDACTED] during October, 1986, about his problem.

[REDACTED] advised he marked [REDACTED] letter on page 2 regarding the threat in blue ink. He also stated that he did not think Mr. YATES has ever seen this letter.

He was advised of the identity of Special Agent (SA) [redacted] of the Mount Prospect Resident Agency and was asked if an appointment could be arranged for him to be interviewed by the FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION (FBI).

b6
b7C

[redacted] stated he was on his way out to go to work, however, an appointment could be arranged, and set a date and time of Thursday, September 16, 1987, at 11:00 a.m. [redacted] then inquired as to the reason for the appointment following which he was advised, it was in regard to a letter which was written to the Speaker of the United States, House of Representatives, which was passed along to the Honorable SIDNEY YATES. He stated that he knew of the letter. He was asked if he had written this letter to which he replied, he did, and then proceeded to advise why he wrote the letter.

b6
b7C

[redacted] stated that he was unjustly treated by the attorneys who represented him as well as the two United States attorneys who handled his case in United States District Court. He stated that he wanted restitution and had never received it from a greivance he had filed with the post office several years prior.

b6
b7C

[redacted] stated that he had also contacted the FBI regarding this matter and spoke to a female at 219 South Dearborn whose name he could not recall. He stated he called back but never could get this individual.

b6
b7C

[redacted] stated he was presently employed [redacted] but wished he was back with the post office due to the differential in hourly wages between a [redacted] and a postal carrier. He stated he had never been let go or terminated by the post office and he wanted the money due

On November 25, 1987, SSA [redacted] attended a hearing in the courtroom of United States District Court Judge, PAUL E. PLUNKETT, Northern District of Illinois. Also present at this hearing were Judge PLUNKETT, Assistant United States Attorney (AUSA) [redacted] defense attorney [redacted] and subject, [redacted]

b6
b7C

Judge PLUNKETT had arranged this hearing to give [redacted] a forum to air any grievances he had regarding the handling of his court case previously before Judge PLUNKETT.

[redacted] was allowed to state his complaints about the handling of his case, all of which were directed at his attorneys and not at the court.

b6
b7C

AUSA [redacted] and Judge PLUNKETT verbally recreated the sequence of events regarding the case for [redacted] and tried to explain that his suit was unsuccessful as it had been barred by the Statute of Limitations. Judge PLUNKETT tried to explain to the subject that justice is not always fair, but that laws must be followed and that unfortunately the laws worked to [redacted] disadvantage in this instance.

Following the hearing writer advised subject that if he had any allegations of corruption he should contact writer and that any allegations of unprofessional or unethical conduct by attorneys or judges should be reported to the Attorney Registration and Disciplinary Commission or the Judicial Inquiry Board, respectively. Finally, subject was advised not to send any further correspondence to Judge PLUNKETT's home.

proper attention and deal fairly with his case.
SA [redacted] advised [redacted] that if he wanted to file complaints against his attorney and the judge that he was certainly entitled to do so. However, when asked if he was making a threat, he replied that he was just making strong suggestive statements to show the government that he was frustrated and wanted someone to correct the wrongful way his case was handled.
